APPSC GROUP 1 / GROUP 2 — HISTORY

Volume 4: History and Culture of Andhra Pradesh — explained from the basics

Ancient · Early medieval · Kakatiyas, Reddis, Gajapatis · Vijayanagara and Telugu literature · Qutb Shahis and Vemana · Europeans and Company rule · Social reform · Nationalist movement · Andhra State, Andhra Pradesh and the 2014 bifurcation

How to use this volume:
1. Colours: Blue = simple explanation · Orange = Kurnool / Rayalaseema link · Red = exam traps · Green = 2-minute revision · Purple = self-test.
2. Who's who tables give each person's one-line hook. There are no drawn portraits, because the people shown would only be guesses; use the hook line and the maps to remember.
3. Syllabus: Group 1 Mains Paper II Part B items 6–10 (Ancient, Medieval, Modern, Nationalist Movement, Bifurcation) and Group 2 History and Culture of AP. Volumes 1–2 give the India background; this volume is Andhra only.
4. Plan: 9 chapters in 9 days; revise green boxes on day 3 and day 10; then History Mock Test 4.
5. Dates and spellings of old names differ between books. Where scholars disagree the book says 'c.' (about). Learn the order of events and the famous names first.

CHAPTER 1 — Ancient Andhra: From the Andhras to the Vishnukundins

c. 600 BCE – 624 CE

IN SIMPLE WORDS (what / how / why)

Why 'Andhra'? The word first appears for a people: the Aitareya Brahmana lists the Andhras among peoples living beyond the Aryan fold; Megasthenes (via Pliny) says the Andhras were strong, with about 30 walled towns, 1 lakh infantry, 2,000 cavalry and 1,000 elephants. Ashoka's Rock Edict XIII names them among his frontier peoples.
Before the kings: Megalithic burials, Asmaka (Assaka) mahajanapada on the Godavari (capital Potana/Podana, near Bodhan), Ashoka's edicts at Yerragudi and Rajula Mandagiri (Kurnool). The first great Andhra empire was that of the Satavahanas.

Map: ancient Andhra

Satavahanas (c. 230 BCE – 220 CE)

Ruler / topic	Key points
Simuka	Founder (Puranic date c. 230 BCE). Capital Pratishthana (Paithan, Godavari); later Dhanyakataka (Amaravati) was the eastern capital
Satakarni I	Performed Ashvamedha and Rajasuya; wife Naganika issued the Nanaghat inscription; expanded to Malwa and Andhra
Hala	Compiled Gathasaptashati (Gahasattasai) — 700 Prakrit verses on everyday life
Gautamiputra Satakarni (c. 106–130 CE)	Greatest Satavahana. Defeated the Shaka king Nahapana (re-struck his coins); called 'destroyer of Shakas, Yavanas and Pahlavas'. Nasik inscription by his mother Gautami Balashri praises him
Vasishthiputra Pulumavi	Extended the Amaravati stupa; ruled the south-east (Andhra)
Yajna Sri Satakarni	Last great ruler; ship coins show overseas trade; dynasty broke up soon after
Administration	Kingdom divided into aharas (districts); officials: amatyas, mahasenapati, gaulmika (head of a military/forest post); feudatories Maharathis, Mahabhojas; royal names were matronymics (Gautamiputra, Vasishthiputra)
Economy and society	Rich trade with Rome via ports like Ghantasala (Kantakasela), Kodur, Machilipatnam; Roman coins found in Andhra; guilds (nigamas) gave donations; lead, potin, silver and copper coins; four varnas but mixed marriages; women were donors and sometimes property holders
Religion, language, art	Brahmanism (Vedic sacrifices) and Buddhism; official language Prakrit (Brahmi script) with Sanskrit; Telugu personal and place names appear in the records. Amaravati (Mahachaitya, white limestone reliefs, 'Andhra school'), Jaggayyapeta, Ghantasala, Bhattiprolu; Karle chaitya (Maharashtra)

Ikshvakus, Salankayanas, Pallavas and Vishnukundins

Dynasty	Capital / period	Key points
Ikshvakus	Vijayapuri (Nagarjunakonda); c. 225–325 CE	Founder Vasishthiputra Chamtamula (Santamula I) performed Ashvamedha and Vajapeya; Virapurushadatta, Ehuvula Chamtamula, Rudrapurushadatta. Royal women (Chamtisiri, Adavi Santisiri) built Buddhist viharas; Nagarjunakonda was a major Buddhist centre (Mahachaitya, apsidal temples, monasteries). Linked with Acharya Nagarjuna (Madhyamika). Site excavated before the Nagarjuna Sagar dam submerged it; relics shifted to the island museum
Salankayanas	Vengi (Pedavegi, near Eluru); c. 300–440	Hastivarman met Samudragupta (Allahabad pillar); devotees of Chitraratha Swami (Sun/Vishnu); Brahmanical
Pallavas in Andhra	Early Pallavas ruled coastal and southern Andhra from Kanchi	Sivaskandavarman: Mayidavolu plates (Guntur) and Hirahadagalli plates (Bellary) in Prakrit
Vishnukundins	Denduluru, later Indrapalanagara / Amaravati area; c. 420–624	Madhavavarman II (Janashraya) performed eleven Ashvamedhas; Govindavarman built Buddhist monasteries; Undavalli and Mogalrajapuram rock-cut caves (Vijayawada area). Ended when Pulakeshin II conquered the coast and gave it to his brother Kubja Vishnuvardhana (c. 624) — start of the Eastern Chalukyas
Others	Brihatphalayanas (Kondamudi), Anandagotrikas (Guntur), Matharas (Kalinga)	Small dynasties between the Ikshvakus and the Chalukyas

Samudragupta's southern campaign (c. 350 CE): the Allahabad pillar names Andhra kings defeated and re-instated: Hastivarman of Vengi, Vishnugopa of Kanchi, Ugrasena of Palakka (Nellore), Kubera of Devarashtra, Mantaraja of Kurala, Nilaraja of Avamukta, Svamidatta of Pishtapura (Pithapuram) and Damana of Erandapalla — a favourite list.

Buddhism, Jainism and Telugu in ancient Andhra

• Buddhism: Amaravati (Mahachaitya), Nagarjunakonda, Bhattiprolu (relic casket with an early Brahmi variant script, 3rd–2nd c. BCE), Jaggayyapeta, Ghantasala, Salihundam, Thotlakonda, Bavikonda, Sankaram; sects Purvashaila and Aparashaila (Mahasanghika branches); Nagarjuna (Madhyamika philosophy) and later Dinnaga (logic) are associated with Andhra. • Jainism: spread by monks from the north; Kolanupaka (Jain centre), Penugonda and Ramatirtham have Jain remains; later Jainism lost to Shaivism and Vaishnavism. • Telugu: a Dravidian language; the word 'Telugu' may derive from Trilinga/Tenugu. Early Telugu words occur in Satavahana and Ikshvaku records; the Kalamalla inscription (c. 575 CE, Kadapa) of the Renati Chola Erikal Muduraju Dhananjaya is the earliest full Telugu inscription. The script grew from Brahmi through the Telugu-Kannada (Kadamba–Chalukya) script by about the 11th century.
